CITY OF CENTRAL POINT
Multi Cultural Committee Minutes
February 8, 2010

I. REGULAR MEETING CALLED TO ORDER

Chair Shannon Moulin called the meeting to order at 6:04 p.m.

II. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

III. ROLL CALL: Roll call: Shannon Moulin; Autumn Chadbourne; Carol Robbins; Amy Sweet; and were present. Jill Gregg, and Jaymey Sweeney were absent.

Council Members Kay Harrison and Carol Fischer; City Recorder Deanna Casey were also present.

IV. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

A. Approval of November 9, 2009 Committee Minutes

Shannon Moulin made a motion to approve the minutes as presented. Autumn Chadbourne seconded. All said aye. Motion approved.

V. BUSINESS

A. Chairperson Update

Vacant Committee Position: Chairperson Shannon Moulin stated that Marilyn Wilbur has decided not to continue her membership on the Committee at this time. The city has advertised the vacant position and received two applications. A recommendation will be sent before the Council for appointment at the next available meeting. If anyone else is interested in applying they should send an application to City Recorder Deanna Casey.

Equality Proclamation Proposal: Mrs. Moulin stated that she has suggested to the City that an Equality Proclamation be proposed for the City Council to approve. Currently the City does approve a Southern Oregon Pride Day Proclamation which is similar to the Equality Proclamation recommendation. She would also like to see the Council approve a Proclamation for Martin Luther King Jr. Day for next year.

B. Education Sub-Committee Update

Consideration for Project Participation: Autumn Chadbourne reported that they are trying to set up a multicultural student award with a scholarship of some sort in order to recognize students who promote diversity in their school. She will have a meeting with the City Administrator to work out the guidelines for the award. She will be meeting with the School District to discuss the options on Friday. The committee may be asked to do a 10 minute presentation to a few of the elementary schools during lunch breaks.

There was discussion on teaching tolerance curriculum and that they have a list of books that can be purchased and used for teaching tools.

The Education Sub-Committee will continue to meet the 2nd Monday of each month at City Hall. Citizens are welcome to attend.

C. Events Sub-Committee Update

Mrs. Moulin stated that the subcommittee needs to set up a meeting schedule and start discussing summer activities. She would like to check with the school district and be included in some of their events. It would help with expenses if they could join with the School District on events that they are providing.

D. Budget Discussion

The Committee agreed to use the Multicultural budget towards education, books and scholarships. It was suggested that they look into any senior projects that would be encouraging diversity to award the scholarship.

Mrs. Moulin stated that she feels they have had a good first year and they are starting to find out where the community stands regarding diversity.

E. Miscellaneous

Amy Sweet stated that she has started a data base of resources and would be able to research the High School for a list of scholarships that are available.

VI. PUBLIC APPEARANCES AND CORRESPONDANCE

Council Member Kay Harrison said she feels the committee is doing a great job working with the school district and the events that they have been participating in.

Fran Corderro – Settell introduced herself stating that she has submitted an application for the vacant position. She explained her background and the reasons she believes she would be a good asset to the Committee.

JoEllen (Jody) Falske stated that she is interested in submitting an application and explained her background in diversity and working with educators.

Mrs. Robbins stated that they should look into providing a booth at the 4th of July event near the stage, they could have a multicultural presentation on the stage.

VII. ADJOURNMENT

Shannon Moulin moved to adjourn, Autumn Chadbourne seconded, all said "aye" and the Multicultural Committee Meeting was adjourned at 6:35 p.m.

The foregoing minutes of the February 8, 2010, Multicultural Committee meeting were approved by the Committee at its meeting of May 10, 2010.
